

Welcome to ~

Men to Read in March

WTML's Author Fair brings together the following local authors to present their stories, answer questions and sign books, which will be available for purchase.

John Hykes

Who's Going to Say Kaddish For the Chinaman's Dog?

WHO'S GOING TO SAY
KADDISH
FOR THE CHINAMAN'S
DOG?

DSGT-DJ
h A
SOO

A Love Story Set in South Central Tennessee
JON HYKES

An emotional journey through revenge, atonement, redemption and, finally, respect awaits readers in the pages of Who's Going to Say Kaddish For the

Chinaman's Dog? The book is a love story following sufferers of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) as they, strangers at first, live on and discover the meaning of life, love and each other. ■

Glenn Maynard

Strapped Into An American Dream

Glenn Maynard captures America by whirling readers along a 35,000-mile trek through the 48 contiguous states in a rebuilt RV. One week following his wedding, Glenn and his wife quit their jobs, sold their cars and set out to find America. This book details how they were able to realize this dream and then introduces the unique people they met and places they visited along the path. Travel with them through 23 National Parks, Las Vegas, Mardi Gras and dusty ghost towns. ■

Joe Hurley

Ten Million Steps on Route 6: a fresh look at America & Americans from Cape Cod to California

Route 6 covers 3,600 miles from Cape Cod to California and is the longest continuous highway in the United States. Author Joe Hurley, a retired Connecticut newspaperman who spent most of his career at The News-Times in Danbury, completed his nine-month walk and wrote a book about it. He will share his adventures with a virtual trip on foot across the country. ■

Registration for the fair is required at the library's Reference Desk by calling 860-652-7720, or online.